

MUST NOT EVICT FIGHTERS' FAMILIES

Congress Takes Steps to Protect Enlisted Men's Dependents.

Robert F. Adams' Parts With East 76th St. House—Old Silk District Active.

Reports which drifted into the national capital from all corners of the country to the effect that owners of residential properties were dismissing the families of soldiers and sailors who had not been as punctual as former tenants in the payment of rent led to preparation and speedy passage of the measure by Congress which will stay such procedure.

The Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Interior, as the case may be, empowered, subject to regulations he may prescribe, to order an allotment of the pay of a person in military service to the relatives of the person.

REALTY'S LIBERTY BONDS DRIVE NOW ON

$155,000 Subscribed Yesterday, First Really Good Day's Work.

You've got to take your hat off to the state-act men of New York! When they start out to do a thing they do it right. Witness that yesterday the Liberty Loan Committee of the Real Estate Board after but one really good day's work reported a total of $155,000 subscribed to the Third Liberty Loan, and that is only a breath of the whirlwind which is going to raise before they get through.

Perhaps you think that $155,000 is not much money for the real estate men of New York to subscribe in one day, but just remember that real estate has been through a few years of the toughest kind of going and that good part of the business most brokers have done has never reached the point where commissions are paid and deposited in the brokers' pockets.

Women in $25,000 ESTATE DEAL. Griffin, Prince & Ripley have sold for Miss Jessie E. Turner T. Bonstedt, 3201 Broadway, a five-story apartment building, on plot 22500, for $25,000.

BUYER OF 145D STREET FLAT. Isidor Abraham is the buyer of the five-story flat at 311 West 145th street, reported sold yesterday.
